RESOLUTION:

Mr. BALCAEN – Calling on the Provincial Government to Keep Hard Drugs Illegal

17. WHEREAS the Provincial Government of British Columbia was forced to take action to make illicit drug use illegal in all public spaces, including inside hospitals, on transit, and in parks, after a failed decriminalization policy; and

WHEREAS drug traffickers and organized crime in British Columbia were openly selling illicit substances in public spaces, including hospitals and clinics; and

WHEREAS public spaces where children and families are present must be kept safe and free from needle debris and drug paraphernalia; and

WHEREAS unchecked public drug consumption threatens public safety and the wellbeing of neighbourhoods and communities; and

WHEREAS healthcare professionals and patients should not be exposed to open illicit drug use in healthcare facilities; and

WHEREAS the Provincial Government must prioritize education, treatment pathways and recovery options for those struggling with addiction; and

WHEREAS the Federal Government recriminalized illicit drugs after British Columbia's failed decriminalization pilot project put the well-being and safety of communities at risk.
